

GIDEON WINS THOUSANDS.MAKES ANOTHER "KILLING"
WITH HIS COLT CLONMELL.Bucks the Long Odds Down With Heavy Wagers—Bedeck Beats Potentie by a Head—Roxane Wins in Fast Time
—Five Favorites Beaten at Gravesend.

Not many weeks ago David Gideon made an effective "killing" at Sheepshed Bay with his filly Josephine, who, backed heavily at all sorts of long odds, won the gallop by a head and paid off $1,000. Gideon and his friends cleared about $90,000, it was said, and then they subdivided. But Gideon was only preparing something else almost as good as Josephine. In the third race at Gravesend yesterday, which was a handicap for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, Gideon had a colt named Clonmell, by His Highness—Nattie, who opened in some books at 20 to 1, but in a majority was quoted at ten and eight. Gideon and his friends were not so sure of Clonmell, got their money down all over the ring as quiet as possible. So much of it was placed with the layers that Clonmell's price was 4 to 1 at post time. Fenwick, Major Dainerfield and Setauket, picked out by the form players as the best chances, consequently received in the betting as Clonmell was reduced.

When the field broke from the barrier, Clonmell, guided by Wonderly and carrying 6½ pounds, rushed to the front, while he maintained his advantage throughout to the end of the journey, where he was victorious by a length and a half over Setauket, who passed the tiring Ben Howard at the head of the stretch and beat Major Dainerfield for the place by three lengths. Clonmell's time was 1:07 2-6. It was estimated that Gideon and his associates took close to $40,000 out of the ring.

It was another quiet day for the public as only one favorite, Scottie Bush, in the fifth race, was successful. The most stirring finish occurred in the last event for selling platters, at one mile and 70 yards. Kitterogram, the 9-to-5 favorite, was nowhere. Potente, the 8-to-2 second choice, however, did better, though he could not win. A beautiful bit of riding by Redfern, the Canadian boy, brought deduced, a 10-to-1 shot, in the last jump and made the cold heat Potente's. The 10-to-1 third, Harry Criterion, 5 to 1, was third, half a length away.

Pearl Findel, the 11-to-5 favorite in the third race, was the most stirring finisher in the last event for selling platters, at one mile and 70 yards. Kitterogram, the 9-to-5 favorite, was nowhere. In the handicap for all ages at one mile and 6½ furlongs, Roxane, with 6½ pounds and Roxane, with 8½ pounds, were equal second choices at 7 to 2, while Macdiddie was the 2-to-1 favorite. Herbert got away so well, when the barrier dropped, that he might be never got out of last place. Macdiddie showed in from going past the stand for the first time, but gave up soon to Roxane, who was eighth, though the Canadian had to drive his vigorously to beat by three parts of a length in 1:08 3-6. St. Finian, 15 to 1, was the 10-to-1 third, half a length away.

Fourteen brood mares belonging to W. K. Vanderburgh will be shipped to-day by the Atlantic liner Minneapolis to Mr. Vanderburgh's farm on the grounds of the Gramercy Park Club at Manhattan. It was a trifle earlier for fielders and spectators, but just suitable for the batsmen, who were able to score freely and fast without the distress attending long innings in hot weather. A splendid wicket had been prepared. It was hard and fast, notwithstanding the recent rain, and true as a billiard table, and reflected much credit on those responsible for its preparation.

The Philadelphia team, which had been vanquished in the toss and batting first, then made good use of it, too, and succeeded in keeping the Englishmen in the field all day while they ran up a score of 292 for eight wickets. R. D. Brown carried off the principal honors in this compilation of the University of Pennsylvania professor defended his wicket for 1 hour and 45 minutes and during that time put on 84 runs by excellent cricket. He got only one chance to be bowled and scored 100. At the same time he should have been caught at long-on by A. M. Hollins. F. H. Bohan also batted splendidly and put on 60 in faultless style. He disproved the assertion often made that golfing kills the straight bat so essential in the defense of the wicket, and his exhibition to-day went to prove that a man can be an expert with a pencil.

Mr. W. H. Morris, who had been in all three Philadelphia matches against the Englishmen and made double figures every time he batted, was the best batsman. His 155 was not marred by any further error. A. M. Hollins, 40, showed good form in his counter-attack, and T. C. Jordan joined the long list of double figure scorers. The only disappointment in the series was the failure of J. A. Lester, the doctor, to make his mark. The game will be resumed in the morning. The score:
